

ATTENTION ISLANDERS

Please do not panic. You have been invaded. I, Danny Wallace, have claimed Eel Pie Island as my own, and as a result I am now your leader.

Please relinquish any and all passports. You will not need them any more. Although it's probably best to keep them in a safe place for now - at least until I've had new ones printed up.

Eel Pie Island is now under my control. You will find me to be a fair and just leader, although that's not to say I'll be a pushover. I can be quite grumpy in the mornings.

Eel Pie Island is to become a country in its own right, with me as its rightful King. Any complaints or reservations must be submitted to me in writing within 28 days, although I do have the right to ignore them.

From time to time, I will be away from the island - but that doesn't give you a licence to misbehave. I will be leaving my second-in-command, Jon Bond, with you. He was once a security guard at Tesco in Preston, where he received more than two top (regional) awards, so he will be familiar with all aspects of law and order. Consider him my army for now.

Best Wishes,

Danny Wallace - Leader, Eel Pie Island
